I was desperate for an appointment and even though there were none left the doctor managed to get me in. I am so grateful.

Because you can never get an appointment.

Always had excellent support and always felt like all doctors have listened and gave me some positive action in relation to any problems. Also felt they diagnosed the problems very quickly.

Because, when I have needed help either from my doctor or at Reception they have been courteous and friendly all the time.

Difficult to get through first thing, no appointments left once you get through. Nice being diagnosed over the phone though.
